

I Don't Want This (Job Interview Song) - by Jackson Emmer and Terry Klein, c. 2019
www.jacksonemmer.com

D A G
Tell me a little bit about yourself.
D A G
First off, I'm sorry I'm late.
D A G
What are your interests, hobbies and such?
 D A G
I like spreadsheets and twelve hour days.
D A G
What's your greatest weakness? I said, caring too much.
D A G
He said: I've heard that once or twice before.
 D A G
I said: I'd be a great addition to your fine operation,
 D A G
I'm just trying to get my foot in the door.

D A G
I don't want this, but I need it.
D A G
One day you'll fire me, either that or I'll quit.
D A G D A G
I don't want this, but I need it.

Tell me about this gap here on your resume.
I moved to Nashville, then right back again.
He asked me how I deal with conflict at work.
When it's hairy, man, I just don't come in.
Where do you see yourself five years from now?
I'll be a Powerball millionaire.
My future avocation is a lack of occupation,
I'll be floating down the river, somewhere.

Chorus

Solo

Bridge

Em G D Em G A7
You and I are the same, pawns in a rich man's game.

I wish we'd quit pretending that I want to be your deputy,
regional assistant, manager of IT,
HR, QC, no sir, not me.

Chorus